child care, ceiling heights aired

Tech Center plans shown

BELLE GLADE—The first drawings of the long-awaited West Area Technical Center by the Palm Beach County School Board Tuesday night brought general approval but suggestions for a raised roof in the heavy equipment shop and a child care center.

The board held the workshop session in the Glades Central library to get input on the schematic plans for the proposed $3 million facility, which will be built at SR 715 and Hooker Highway.

And the input came: largely from persons debating whether a 12 foot ceiling in the heavy equipment shop, the second of its type in the state, would be high enough.

Architect Carroll Peacock, of Peacock and Lewis, Inc. of Palm Beach, showed a series of five slides depicting a conceptual vision of what the tech center should look like. He said he believed the 12-foot ceiling and 10-foot high doors to the shop would be adequate for teaching purposes.

U.S. Department of Agriculture engineer Joe Clayton pointed out, however, that a large number of mechanical harvesters in the area range upwards of 17 feet tall and considering the need for overhead working space, the 12-foot ceiling wouldn't be adequate. Peacock said he and school personnel had toured the Caterpillar shop in Miami, where the doors were more than 20 feet high, but the thinking was that the school shop wouldn't be expected to house the extra-large pieces of equipment which are repaired in the Caterpillar shop.

The opinion was also expressed that if any larger equipment would be used as a learning experience, it could be kept outside in an open area.

Peacock also pointed out more would be involved than simply raising the ceiling of the shop, since that would imply the heavier cranes and supporting equipment to go along with the higher working space, which would cost more money.

"We're here to serve the board," Peacock said and indicated more thought would go into the ceiling height of the shop.

The heavy equipment shop received more attention than the ceiling height, however, since it was placed in the number one priority in the educational specifications of what is needed in the Glades.

It will be the first shop in a technical center in the county and only the second in the state, with the first being located in Bartow.

Because it was placed at the top of the priorities list, Peacock said the heavy equipment shop was placed by itself to leave elbow room for the equipment students would learn to operate and maintain and to allow for future expansion.

Board member Dr. Bernard Kimmel said another feature he would like to see incorporated into the center would be a day and night child care center, partially to provide training in that area but primarily to allow adults to continue their education at night and have a place to leave their children.

Kimmel's suggestion received general support from other board members except James DeLonga, who commented, "I've suspected for some time we were in the babysitting business and I find the direction of this conversation to be most interesting."

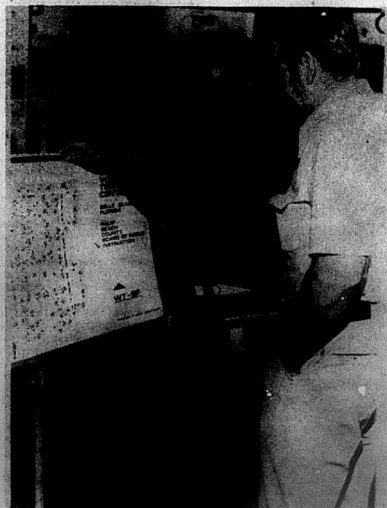

Kimmel said, however, the center would only be used by parents attending classes and could be incorporated in the training program for Licensed Practical Nurses, one of the courses of instruction planned for the center.

Generally, the center is being based on the design of the South Tech Center in Boca Raton and Peacock said he is likening it to the General Motors Tech Center in Detroit.

"We've tried to take a simple form," the architect said, "with rectangles and one-story structures, leaving room for expansion and green areas."

He said the materials will be similar to those used at the South Tech Center and the plans have attempted to create a unified concept for the campus while using open spaces to act as buffer areas between the noisy shop areas and quieter

Osceola ouster is dropped

BELLE GLADE—The move to de-annex Belle Glade Housing Authority's Osceola Center apparently ground to a halt last week when the Authority notified the city administration the request for de-annexation has been withdrawn.

In a two-paragraph letter mailed Thursday, City Commission Authority Chairman Louis Kirchner said the Board of Directors Housing Authority of the City of Belle Glade took the action May 25.

The decision to withdraw the request came two days after several persons asked the City Commission to reject the request on grounds it would disfranchise the residents of the housing project and Commissioner William Gear broke the 50 solidarity needed for de-annexation.

Gear criticized several of the steps taken to oust the 285-rental unit project from the city limits. When the matter first came up on April 25, Gear voted with the other commissioners but said last week he had been misinformed on exactly what the Authority members wanted.

The move had also come under legal fire from Elvora Eddings, a resident of the center, who filed suit in circuit court for a temporary injunction to stop the proceedings.

The suit was mentioned only in passing in last week's commission meeting and no action had been taken by the court in order to stop the action.

MRS. MYRTLE JOHNSON was introduced to the Palm Beach County School Board Tuesday night by H.W. "Dick" Berryman (at the microphone) and Belle Glade Elementary School Principal Harry Davis. Berryman said Mrs. Johnson, who will retire from teaching the second grade at the end of this year, has been responsible at one time or another for the education of a number of the community's leaders.

Cox named to women's panel

SOUTH BAY—City Commissioner Vernita Cox was named last week to a 47-member Florida coordinating committee, part of a nationwide program, to meet on the right and responsibilities of women.

The Florida meeting, according to a news release from the National Commission on the Observance of International Women's Year (U.S. Department of State) is scheduled for July 15-17 in Orlando. Committee members were selected as individuals rather than as representatives of specific organizations.

A National Women's Conference, scheduled for Nov. 18-21 in Houston, Tex., will draw representatives selected by the state meetings and appointed by the National Commission.

Based on the results of the state meetings, the national conference will make recommendations to eliminate the barriers that prevent women from participating fully and equally in all aspects of national life.

The state meetings, in accordance to a 1976 Congressional action naming the commission, will sponsor 56 state meetings, which also include the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, the Virgin Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands; which are to meet this summer.

On the national level, a 42-woman commission was recently named by President Jimmy Carter, all to serve without compensation, which will be headed by New York Congresswoman Bella S. Abzug and including former First Lady Betty Ford, Mrs. Coretta Scott King, Gloria Steinem and others.

According to the announcement, the major emphasis of the Carter-appointed IWY Commission is on involving a cross-section of American women: homemakers, students, nurses, secretaries, artists, rural women, household workers, teachers, civic leaders, union members, church workers, and "especially people who may never have been to a woman's meeting."

"American will never be the same," Ms. Abzug said. "Vermont has already proved that. They held

King resigns South Bay alcohol rehab center post, cites CAMP controversy

SOUTH BAY—Glades Director of Alcohol Rehabilitation Bill King resigned Wednesday effective June 1.

"I'm resigning because of a lack of ability to bring this program into a full community-supported program," King said. "We have lost the former revenue sharing monies from the cities of Belle Glade and South Bay due to controversy not related to this program but to the parent organization," King said.

The parent organization is the Florida Farm Workers Council and the Herald chronicled the difficulties of CAMP the past few months. King came to the glades in July, 1974 to develop a comprehensive alcoholic rehabilitation program for western Palm Beach County.

"We have succeeded in developing a skeleton of the comprehensive program," King said Wednesday, "but as a result of this agency being a part of the Florida Farm Workers Council, formerly CAMP, it has been extremely difficult to include the more vital parts of the community, i.e., business and professional organizations to support the effort."

King emphasized that his "name of the game is treatment of a personal problem rather than the color of skin" and "we here at this center served the entire community with no discrimination in the hiring of staff nor the treatment of patients."

Attempts to become independent and break away from the former CAMP offices, now the Florida Farm Workers, have been halted by refusal of the FFWC to relinquish control of the alcohol rehab program, King said.

King is looking forward to taking a government job in either Washington, D.C. or Philadelphia.

Geronimo!

LOOK, UP IN THE SKY! It's a bird, it's a plane, no, it's the Glades Day cheerleaders. Faster than a speeding rah, rah, rah! More powerful than a locomotive cheer! Able to leap from a tall pyramid in a single bound! And how did their warriers do? How about an aggregate score of 21-0? More on Sports Page.

Our congratulations go out to the "over 400" graduating seniors at Christian Day, Glades Day, Glades Central, and Pahokee High.

There is a bright future ahead for these young people, despite the bad outlook some people would lead them to believe.

Within the next few years, we will see more changes than ever before in history. Think that? Only 50 years ago, man had never even dreamed of travel to outer space. Now it's possible and within the next generation, our colonization of space will be a reality.

There are those who say there are no more challenges...no more inventions to be discovered...no more limitations to be hurdled. Some people are that shortsighted. The future is limitless and you can bet the young people now walking down to receive their diplomas are aware of this fact.

We congratulate them on their first achievement of adult life...graduation from high school...and wish them well on their individual paths to success.

The graduation issue is something a bit different this year. To my knowledge, years past have seen nothing more than individual pictures of the graduates and no mention was made of their accomplishments or personal histories.

This year, the Herald's own graduate, Anna Gomez, has compiled biographies of all the seniors who turned in the forms we supplied to them.

Anna has done an outstanding job and she should be commended for it. After wading through the first hundred, the rest came along pretty well, but it's a task that is time consuming, to say the least. Anyway, we feel the issue is something graduates can hang on to for the rest of their lives...look back on and treasure.

This week, I returned home from my yearly trek to Mississippi more worn out than ever before.

Seems that sister Beth left her three kids with my folks. Brother Dave his two, and along with son Burke they managed to raise the roof with regularity.

Then Beth and her husband returned from their vacation to Marco Island, brother Dave and his wife came in from Houston, and along with the two "stay-at-home" brothers, Steve and Les, things got "better and better."

Mother Dot took it all in stride. That's one woman that the older she gets, the younger she acts. Daddy also took it all in stride...he wandered off to bed early in the evening and hung up his "do not disturb" sign until the wee hours of the morning when things had quieted down.

Large families are a lot of fun, both in growing up and in visiting...but for the life of me, I can't see how the parents made it this far.

And many more visits from all the clan like last week won't keep them enjoy a quiet retirement...either of them ever decide to head in that direction.

More about Gunter's insurance plan

Dear Mr. Jones:
Some rather astonishing figures, which I thought you would be interested in, are making their way to the surface as we probe deeper and deeper into the question of speculative damages in automobile bodily injury cases. We are finding that the speculative damages which we propose to eliminate from the system already are virtually nonexistent so far as the poor victim is concerned. The lawyers themselves have effectively seen to this.

Briefly, a study shows that in cases of permanent total disability, where presumably mental anguish, pain and suffering awards would be most justified, the typical victim ends up with less than his actual economic loss, i.e., hospital and doctor bills and loss of earnings.

The average economic loss is $7,888. The average settlement is $12,556. Applying the standard 40 percent contingency fee to the settlement leaves the poor victim with not even enough money to take care of his economic loss. He actually loses $354 in the hole. The only person who has profited from the award of speculative damages is the lawyer.

I think this is extremely important information, in light of the highly emotional arguments being posed by trial lawyers in opposition to our insurance rate reform legislation. I think it helps to bring the true motives of our opposition into much clearer focus. I deeply appreciate your interest in our program and look forward to seeing you again soon. Please let me know whenever I can be of assistance.

Sincerely,
BILL GUNTER
State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner

' THANK YOU GENERAL FOR THOSE CANDID VIEWS ON KOREA ...

Happy time is prime time

Wednesday morning selected Glades citizens heard plans for a county-wide Royal Palm Festival scheduled for Aug. 19-28 and were asked if they (the Glades) would like to participate in it with, say a Glades Day of the Royal Palm Festival. The Palm Beach County Economic Council, in the person of Hal Stayman, executive director, will give us all kinds of publicity on the coast when we in the Glades get our activities together.

One of the main features of the meeting at the Holiday Inn Wednesday morning was the voicing of the showup complaint that coast people don't care about the Glades.

It's a valid complaint, as anyone who works the coast even one day a week can affirm, but it's time we did something about it here.

A seeming lack of enthusiasm from many members of the audience Wednesday may be because there hasn't been much community involvement in any "happy" activity in some time — certainly not Glades-wide involvement.

Here are just some of the things that Belle Glade-South Bay-Pahokee can come up with that were bantered around the table this week:

—A fish fry, sponsored by the chambers of both towns, with square dancing and a country band.

—A barbecue, sponsored by a group such as the Lions, Elks or Rotary, to name a few, again with a band.

—A locally promoted (or thinks of Simon Train) bluegrass festival right here in the Glades, rather than all around us, as has been true in the past.

—A fishing contest, put on by the numerous fish camps and outdoor stores in the area, with prizes for the most fish caught, weighed of each kind, and the best story.

We could even wax wild for a moment and think of a gator-wrestling exhibition, snake-catching exhibition, and an Indian Day — throwing the Glades back to centuries ago, when tribes roamed the shores of Okeechobee.

But in reality, some of the above mentioned things cost money, and require publicity to be successful.

We at the Herald and Observer stand prepared to cooperate in a Glades Day or Glades Week as fully as we can. We know that our radio also has taken this stance.

Between the two of us and other media which come into the area, the Chamber of Commerce, and — MOST IMPOR-TANTLY — local merchants who have pride in the town, it may well be that we'll give the coast a run for their money in a summer celebration such as we've not seen for a long, long time.

Cuba, no...

What with all the talks going on between Washington and Havana; it looks as though area sugar growers might be able to expect a little competition from Cuban sugar.

Especially in the light of President Carter's decision to put a floor under sugar prices and go ahead with talks on what can be done with trade between the USA and CCC (Castro's Communist Cuba).

We can't help but wonder if the talks would be pursued quite so diligently if CCC's major export wasn't sugarcane but peanuts.

Free earnings, si

It would be nice to know that when President Jimmy Carter presents his Social Security reform message to the nation in July, one of the reforms he makes will be to allow people on Social Security to work as much as they want to on the side. Among the problems with Social Security since its inception has been a gradually changing idea of what it's all about. One of the major changes in concept has been what it's supposed to be to the recipient.

Originally, Social Security was never meant to completely take care of the financial needs of a retiree and the government still preaches that same line.

But if Social Security is supposed to provide only part of the basic necessities, why are recipients penalized for trying to earn a little income on the side?

That penalty places limits on retirees that shouldn't be there. The only way a person, operating under the present system, can have a side income is to have saved that income in advance.

And with the cost of living soaring the way it is these days, that's about as impossible as living off Social Security payments with nothing to help.

Florida's Senator Richard Stone has already drafted a letter to President Carter, along with Senator Barry Goldwater, to knock out the restriction.

Seems to us he needs all the support he can get in the form of letters to him and the President.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

The week of April 24th-30th was designated by Governor Askew as National Volunteer Week in the State of Florida. It was an opportunity to salute millions of volunteers throughout the nation. The staff of Health and Rehabilitative Services of District Nine does extend this salute to all volunteers in District Nine because this special group has played an important part in bringing these badly needed services to our many unfortunate.

The staff of Health and Rehabilitative Services has developed many new volunteer jobs. At the present time, we have about 75 vacant volunteer jobs. As we fill these jobs and expand our Volunteer Program, it will enable us to bring more efficient and thorough services to our many unfortunate — the handicapped, the aged, children with problems or in trouble, and those who are financially destitute.

By becoming an "active" volunteer worker, you would get to know the many disappointments and rewards of volunteer services. We would very well become the "hub" of a helping volunteer group that could expand and develop into a great and wonderful humanitarian

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Too bad we weren't playing horse shoes or hand grenades; the crumbly cracker could've come up with a couple of pretty nice awards in photography, which would've been somewhat different anyway since I only learned how to point a camera to help do the job.

Near misses did count to some degree though and I guess a couple of honorable mentions in a sideline skill ain't too bad. Beats a sharp stick in the eye any day. What it was, was the annual Florida Press Association, and what it meant was that just about every weekly newspaper in the state went begging for help over a long weekend while most of their editors and publishers went to Cocoa Beach to tear and compare products.

One of the highlights...heck, it was the highlight for the big winners, was the Better Newspaper Contest Awards Dinner. I'd entered a couple of photos we'd run last year and lo and behold, the word came out about three weeks ago they'd won some kind of prize.

What they didn't say was what kind of prize; whether it was first, second or third place...or honorable mentions.

One of the pix I'd entered was one of Howard Barker's DC-34 making its own kind of cloud cover for South Bay a few months ago in an effort to get rid of those pesky mosquitos. The way it came out, we named it the Cloudmaker.

But I ask you now, how the heck can DC-3 compete with a parrot slurping beer from a bottle when it comes to human interest? On the other hand, I thought the picture of a made-for-the-movies explosion at Glades Sugar House came off pretty well against a shot of a red tide invasion on the Gulf Coast, got the Alabama football team, this was the real thing!

Anyhoo, if birds and explosions didn't go so well in Cocoa Beach, they went fine in Titusville.

One of the reasons I decided to go to the FPA convention (besides an excuse to savor off for three days) was it just so happened to overlap, the Second Annual Air Show put on by the Florida Wing of the Confederate Air Force.

And that was a blast...literally, for World War II airplane buffs and it has to be the only place on earth where a person could see a former German airplane flying a Confederate battle flag.

The Junkers JU-52, a three engine transport, the same one used by Adolf Hitler by the way, was bought about three years ago by Martin Caidin, an author probably known for his book Cyborg, which was the base for the Six Million Dollar Man.

The Iron Annie, as Caidin dubbed his flying fortress, has to be one of the most unique planes in the world. It is the only one of its kind left anywhere. I don't know what the landing speed is but there was a kid passing it on the other side of the runway with a ten-speed bicycle during one of its landings.

I think that was the one where Caidin broke out the Confederate flag. The flag would've been whipped to shreds if it had been waved from the cockpit of a Piper J-3 but it just sorta hung limp out the window of the JU-52.

Come to think of it, it'd be damn the mainstay of the Confederate Air Force, probably could've been out by infantry.

Or a beer-swilling parrot.

I have recently been appointed to be the "Vista Volunteer" for the Glades area of Palm Beach County. My job is to recruit volunteers to fill the many openings we have.

If you are interested, I can be reached at: Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, P.O. Box 784, Belle Glade, Florida 33430 or phone 906-9057, 9068, or 9069.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou art my Father, my God, and my King. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most familiar chapters in the Bible. Early in life, most of us have committed it to memory. Every once in a while we should go back to these verses and think of the wonderful message of faith and trust in God that they reveal to us. They show us that we have a loving Father; one who will show us the right paths; one who will protect and provide for us. These scriptures end with a note of thanksgiving and a promise.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Plan to start a regular worship in the Lord's house.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for men of His demand for men to respond to that love by loving His neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or order. A way of life will be born. The freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Local Women's Club installs new officers

PAHOKEE—A buffet luncheon was enjoyed by all the Pahokee Women's Club members and their guests on the afternoon of Wednesday, May 25th marking the last meeting for the current club year. Following the luncheon, Mrs. Lillian Hutton presided at the installation of 77-78 Club officers. Her theme was "Social Service and Fellowship of the Club." Mrs. Hutton commented that she found that "happy people are people who are satisfied, busy and people who serve others." They are involved in community efforts. Wetherington of Pahokee, in a double ring ceremony with the Rev. Carl Storey of Pahokee officiating at the Community United Methodist Church in Belle Glade, on Saturday, May 7. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Harris wore a Victorian style wedding gown of white silk organza. The bodice and long sleeves were appliqued with imported French lace. The bridesmaids, Donna Woodham, Cindy Gummere and Terri Crosby, of Belle Glade, all wore long gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. Serving as flower girl was the cousin of the bride, Kelly Woodham. She was dressed in a long, soft yellow gown matching that of the bridesmaids. Serving as groomsmen were Mike York, Kent Wetherington, brother of the groom, Ned Ayres, and Bruce Wetherington, also brother of the groom; of Pahokee and Belle Glade. The church was decorated with two large urns on pedestals filled with long bouquets of white and yellow daisies decorating the altar against a background of palms and curved candleabra filled with many glowing candles. While the organist, Mrs. Karen Corbin, played soft music, Carol Schmidt, the soloist, sang "The Wedding Song," "The Lord's Prayer," and as the bride and groom left the altar as husband and wife, "We're only just begun," was sung. The bride carried a cascade of white daisies, yellow sweetheart roses, and baby's breath. The maid of honor carried a smaller cascade of yellow and white daisies. The bridesmaids bouquets were made in a colonial fashion of yellow and white daisies. The flower girl carried a nosegay of daisies. Family life program is set

The public is invited to attend an Involvement Workshop entitled the "Revitalization of the Family, School and Community" which will be held on June 18th and 14th, 1977, at the Sheraton Inn, 19001 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd., West Palm Beach, Florida. Attorney General Robert L. Shevin will be the keynote speaker.

Co-sponsored by the Florida Drug Abuse Prevention and Education Trust and the Area Drug Abuse Council, the primary focus of this Workshop is the family and the restoration of the family to a positive nourishing force in the community.

There has never been a time when our schools, families and communities needed more to be a vibrant force. The Trust believes that one of the reasons for the failure of programs designed to prevent everything from drug abuse to juvenile runaways is that social planners forgot the most important resource - yourselves. Consider the facts:

...The chances are one out of three that our children will require the assistance of the helping professions by the time they are 18.

...Juvenile delinquency has been increasing at a higher rate than the juvenile population.

...In Florida alone, 24,000 young people ran away from home last year.

Child Abuse is on the increase. This workshop is an opportunity for all of us to develop new skills and gain new insights into ourselves and into how our behavior affects our children. There is no question that our conduct as parents, as teachers, as community leaders influence our children - the issue is whether or not the impact is positive or negative.

H. Steve Glenn, a Social Psychologist and Director of the National Drug Abuse Center for Training and Resources Development will be the principal consultant.

This workshop has been endorsed by the Urban League of Palm Beach County, Community Action Council, Mental Health Association, Palm Beach Council of Parent/Teacher Associations and Palm Beach County School Board. Parents are urged to attend the workshop.

BELLE GLADE-A slide-illustrated lecture on landscaping in the Glades will be offered free of charge to Glades residents from 9 to 11 a.m. Friday at the Glades County Office Building by Urban Horticulturist Gene Joyner of the Palm Beach County Extension Service.

"Many of our county residents are finding more and more," Joyner said, "that it pays to grown plants in your landscape that provide both shade, flowers and fruit."

"We are fortunate that there are a number of rare and exotic tropical fruits," he said, "that can be raised here in our county and these provide an excellent addition to our diet and if you have a surplus it might also prove profitable because the fruit is in wide demand."

In addition to the more-than 100 slides being shown, Joyner said there will be printed information available on the culture of the fruits discussed.

Anyone desiring further information should call 996-5511.

After the morning presentation, Joyner will be on hand from 1 to 3 p.m. Friday for a monthly plant clinic for residents of the Glades area having problems with anything concerning their landscaping.

He said there will also be free bulletins and other literature available at the agricultural office and those coming in to the plant clinic are urged to pick up pamphlets on subjects they are interested in.

Pahokee softball off to good start

PAHOKEE-The second week of the Pahokee Men's Softball League got under way on Monday, May 23, with two of the leagues top contenders facing each other. Rick Butler followed his lead by getting a single and was brought home by Jerry Curtiss' home run.

Wedgworth scored four runs in the first inning to take the lead on hits by M. Shoemaker and Mark Crissman and a home run by E. Buckner. Wedgworth added two more runs in the third to build the gap. The fifth inning had back to back home runs by R. Butler and J. Curtiss, his second for the night, and a three bagger by P. Rodriguez. Wedgworth took back the lead when their team came to bat with three runs on three hits by G. Bradshaw, M. Shoemaker, and L. Davis. Wedgworth also had back to back home runs with T. King and E. DICK CROCKETT stretches for the ball on a 27-yard pass play from Gator quarterback Tommy Duda in a play against the Redskins.

Cowboys in the Gators, march to an 8-0 victory.

Glades Day swamps King's Academy

BELLE GLADE-The Glades Day School Gators swamped the opposition in two quarters of a spring jammer last Thursday in a lopsided 21-0 effort against LaBelle and King's Academy riding on the improved passing arm of Tom Duda and the swift feet of a sparkling new running back named Quicke Echave.

The Gators didn't make an appearance until after the first quarter, which pitted two junior varsity team against each other, and the second quarter with LaBelle playing King's Academy, both wound up scoreless ties.

The third quarter was basically an offensive show for the Gators, with the defense rising for an early interception of a Cowboy pass to give the ball to the Gator offense early in the quarter, and hanging tough late in the contest to stop a scoring threat cold in the Cowboys' tracks.

The Gator offense scored on its first possession of the night, taking advantage of the intercepted pass to rip off a series of running and passing plays which culminated in a 17 yard run to paydirt by halfback Steve Richey.

Echave, younger brother of graduating quarterback Jorge Echave, put the school on notice that he wasn't walking in his brother's shadow when he turned a broken play into a two-point bonus.

Set to hold the ball for Eddie Buckner to kick the extra point, Echave received a high snap from center and, on plan, scooped it up and picked blockers to race into the end zone.

Echave got his second chance to score on the Gators' first possession in the fourth quarter, broke a play off left tackle, turned the corner and outran pursuers 57 yards to pick up six points against King's Academy Buckner converted the kick for the point after touchdown and the Gators led, 7-0.

The Gator defense absorbed everything King's Academy could throw and forced the ball over on downs in time for another scoring drive ending when Winston Byrd took the ball four yards over right guard to put Glades Day ahead, 23-0 with seconds left in the game. Buckner kicked another point to salt the game away for the Gators, 14-0.

Churchmen sponsor dinner

PAHOKEE-Following the evening prayer at the Church of the Holy Nativity on the evening of May 24th, the men of the church sponsored a parish dinner. The menu included grilled hamburgers and hotdogs, steaming hot corn-on-the-cob, baked beans, cole slaw, cake and cupcakes, ice tea and coffee. The meal and fellowship was enjoyed by all.

The program for the evening was presented by four guest speakers on their experiences at Cursillo. Cursillo is a Spanish word meaning "little or short course", in Christianity. During the period of three days while attending Cursillo, candidates listened to fifteen talks, five each day, given by a pastor and laymen. They also attended communion each day.

Cursillo deals primarily with fundamentals, Christianity, a growth in knowledge, awareness and love of God, neighbors and the world. The men explained that a Cursillo is an encounter with Christ.

Minding the Store

By Andy Campanaro

Palm Beach County is searching for a tourist attraction that would equal Tampa's Gasparilla festival and bring Florida's heavy tourist crowd to Palm Beach County.

They seem to have found such an attraction with the first annual Royal Palm Festival scheduled for August 19th through 28th this year and those city slickers on the coast came here last week to approach the Glades about having one or more "Glades Days" in the festival.

"Some of the things planned in north and west Palm Beach are treasure hunts, regattas, library exhibits, fishing rodeo, a king and queen contest, picnic, square dancing and round dancing and tours of historical sites," says Hal Staymah, executive director of the Economic Council who spoke at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade's Chamber members and others interested in cultural events.

Throwing the meeting open to the residents at the breakfast, local artist Ann Tyler said "the Glades has much art talent that's hidden. An art festival here has been a dream of mine for years."

Bill Magill said the first tour operated by Spence Whitlock would be glad to participate in a Glades Day. "The crops will just be starting in late August, but there's still plenty to see at that time," Magill said.

Chamber of Commerce Executive Secretary Jewel Crane said after the meeting: "I'm envisioning a fishery and individual booths in a pavilion-like setting. We could have square dances, too. Believe me, it will be brought up at the chamber meeting June 9th."

This could be our opportunity to really have a good time, bring a lot of the coast slickers over here and draw in some greenbacks with, say three days of high-glow activities.

Let me say, if the Lions sponsored a bluesgrass festival with some six to 10 bands, Simon Train has the contacts to get them here and the equipment set up.

If they Elks sponsored-through their business members-prizes for the greased pig run, greased pole, two in a bag run, dill bobbing, gator wrestling contest, or watermelon champ (make it Oleecobee catfish eating contest then), that'd be good.

We could get the Kane Kutters square dancing group from Clewisville, David Lowman and the Southern Express, the County Line, and heck, I'll even call at the dancing.

Then there's the fishing camps who could sponsor an Evinrude (maybe a pair of oars?) for the biggest fish, the most fish, and this here newspaper will sponsor maybe $1,000 for the biggest fish he (tell you the right now, I'll win because I'd have to pay the $1,000 if you take me up on it and all I got is Ron Snyder's old car and you know...well).

We could all do something, but it's just getting together. I will say this: Maybe Bill Magill was right when he said to that coast fellow (get the shik's hoof from the coast, but we don't do too much things together out there, either. So it's time for us to get a good time. If anybody's going to have a good time.

The Bank of Belle Glade is applying for a branch office in South Bay at the north end of the mini-plaza.

Bank of Belle Glade President Wayne Mikell said the application for a branch office in Belle Glade's southern neighbor's mini-plaza was made because "we recognize South Bay as a growing community with a good growth potential." Obviously, we want to be a part of this growth.

"Now, South Bay is the only incorporated municipality in western Palm Beach county without a banking facility and we would like to offer residents of the South Bay area a more convenient banking facility."

Business personality

Vernon L. Dexter, owner of Glades Gas Company, originally hails from Salt Lake City, Utah, and moved here in October, 1948, taking on his present company "from scratch," Dexter says.

A member of the San Philip Benezi Roman Catholic Church, he served in the Army Air Corps in WWII as a Captain of a B-17 out of North Africa and Italy, and also in Korea.

Shackelford joins Green

David Shackelford, 24, has joined the sales staff of F. K. Green Chrysler-Plymouth-Judge as new car sales representative. Shackelford was born and raised in the Glades and is a product of local schools. He attended two years at Abraham Baldwin College in Tifton, Georgia and one year at Palm Beach Junior College, taking business courses. He is married to the former Lori Wilkerson and is a member of the First Baptist Church of Belle Glade.

He comes to the automobile dealership as a sales representative after two years at a local fertilizer and chemical company.

IT WAS A BALL, a bowling ball, that is, when Florida First National Bank at Belle Glade President John Turnball found the bank's team had won the championship recently of the Triangle Juniors League rolloff on May 21. Turnball joins junior ace Curtis Barton, Lori Marschino and Denise and Wayne Strippling to show off the team's trophy. The four keggers beat out eight other teams in the junior competition to win the prize.

Dr. David DeRuzzo also told the board members there is some hope students can move into the structure by September 1978 but that the original target date of Jan. 1, 1979 is "more realistic."

As DeRuzzo outlined the schedule for the center, preliminary plans are now underway and are expected to be completed by the first or second week in July and final drawings are expected to be completed between Oct. 1 and Nov. 1.

Both the school board and the Florida Department of Education must approve both preliminary and final plans and DeRuzzo said both are factors which could influence the time construction will begin, which could be as early as Nov. 1.

their meeting in February and expected 800 people. But more than 1,000 slugged through heavy snow to be there.

She said an informal poll showed that 45 per cent of those women had never attended a meeting of that kind before and 54 per cent don't belong to any women's organizations.

Besides her role as a City Commissioner, Mrs. Cox is director of the nursing program at the CAMP Alcohol Rehabilitation Clinic in South Bay; president of the Community Citizen's Club of South Bay and a member of the Palm Beach County Advisory School Board.

Mrs. Cox said she was contacted by State Representative Gwendolyn Cherry, who is to chair the state meeting in Orlando. She said she is particularly interested in bringing up what can be accomplished under the Outreach Program.

Tourist ideas are sought

Searching for a tourist attraction that would equal Tampa's Gasparilla festival or Coconut Grove's art festival and bring asking for participation.

Florida's heavy summer tourist crowd to Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach Economic Council came to Belle Glade last week

Hal Stayman, executive director of the Economic Council spoke on what other parts of the county are planning for the first annual Royal Palm Festival scheduled for August 19-28th.

"Some of the things planned in north and west Palm Beach, and Boca Raton," Stayman said, "are treasure hunts, regattas, library exhibits, fi ring rodeo, a king and queen contest, picnics, square dancing and round dancing and tours of historical sites."

Throwing the meeting open to local Glades residents who attended the Chamber of Commerce breakfast at the Holiday Inn, local artist Ann Tyler said "the Glades has much art talent that's hidden. An art festival here has been a dream of mine for years."

Bill Magill said the farm tours operated by Spence Whitlock would be glad to participate in a Glades Day. "The crops will just be gearing up, but there's still plenty to see at that time," Magill said.

Chamber of Commerce Executive Secretary Jewell Crane said after the meeting: "I'm envisioning a fishery and individual booths in a pavilion-like setting. We could have square dances, too. Believe me, it will be brought up at the chamber meeting June 9th."

Paez honored third year

BELLE GLADE-Glades Central first baseman Paul Paez was recently named to the All-Suncoast Conference baseball team for his third consecutive year.

A four-year letterman, head coach Bruce Huff said Paez "is probably the best baseball player Glades Central has ever had, at least since I came here in 1971."

"Raul was primarily a third baseman through his first three years," Huff said, "but because of an arm injury and a knee operation after last year's football season, he's played first baseman and as a designated hitter this year."

Huff said Paez could also be named to other area honor team when they are named and commented the 5'9", 195 pound senior is already capable of playing college-level baseball.

"He has a tryout scheduled for Palm Beach Junior College," Huff said, "and there's at least one other coach interested in him."

Huff said Paez this year had a

.347 batting average, with 20 runs batted in and another 13 runs scored himself. He said Paez had a total of 26 hits, more than half of those multiple base hits, including three homers, one triple and nine doubles.

"The boy has absolutely no fear of the ball in fielding," Huff said. "One of the things about even a lot of professional players is that they might be a little cautious about getting hit but Raul will take a hit on his chest, face or anywhere if the ball comes new him."

Belle Glade Rotarians told

US, USSR defense gap widens

BELLE GLADE - Members of the Belle Glade Rotary Club were told

Tuesday the primary strategic role of the American people to the near future may be as hostages, because of a huge defense spending gap between the U.S. and the USSR.

In a film and talk presented by Assistant State's Attorney Investigator Ron Ahrens, the Rotarians heard the USSR's defense budget is 50 per cent higher than the United States but the Soviets actually are spending three times the percentage of their gross national product than is the U.S.

And the result, according to the military leaders quoted in the film, is that the land forces mustered by the Warsaw Pact nations are 2.5 times that of NATO; that the Soviets edge in submarines is 3:1 over America; that when it comes to all naval vessels, the edge is 6:1 and growing; that by 1980, the ratio in offensive weapons will be 3:750 for the Soviets compared to 1:500 for the U.S. and in air defense weapons, including fighter interceptors, the edge will be an incredible 16,000 to 200 and the Russians are continually improving anti-ballistic missile defenses and civil defense while the Americans have dismantled both programs.

The film quoted a civil defense expert as saying in the case of all-out war, 45 per cent of the American population would be annihilated while North American Air Defense Commander Gen. Daniel James stated flatly the United States, "has no defense" against a Soviet attack.

"And one unlucky day," the film quoted exiled Russian exile Alexander Solzhenitzin, "they will announce, 'Attention, we are marching into Western Europe and if you do anything about it, we will annihilate you.' And you will do nothing."

Beer cans profitable for Reynolds, Glades

BELLE GLADE-During June, Belle Glades citizens continue to receive 17 cents a pound for clean household aluminum from Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company. They received $1,808.29 from Reynolds last month for 10,687 pounds of aluminum.

Every Thursday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. the mobile aluminum recycling unit will be at the City Park, 500 West Canal Street.

Reynolds pays 17 cents a pound for aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum items such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays and dip, pudding and meat containers.

Certain other items, including aluminum siding, gutters, storm windows, window frames and lawn furniture tubing are also worth 17 cents a pound if properly prepared. This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with cans.

According to Dave Vardell, District Manager, Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company, "We are now recycling approximately 50 per cent of the beverage cans we manufacture. With continued cooperation from an ecology-minded public, Reynolds is working towards recycling 100 per cent."

Reynolds is the nation's largest manufacturer of aluminum cans.

8A-HERALD-OBSERVER, Thurs., June 2, 1977

Two cut in knife fight

LAKE HARBOR—One man was hospitalized and another treated and released at Glades General Hospital Tuesday after a knife fight southwest of here.

Deputy Sheriff Ernest Batista said charges are pending on Luciano Batista, 39, of 287 N.W. Sixth St. in Belle Glade until after he is released from the hospital with wounds on his left elbow and left arm pit which required a total of 40 stitches to close.

No charges have been filed against Alfredo Gonzalez, 25, of Johnson Trailer Park, Lot 25 in Belle Glade.

Batista said there had been "bad blood" for some time between the two Mexican farmworkers over a broken window in Johnsons Trailer Park, which Batista had been blamed for. The ill feelings boiled to a head Tuesday morning as the two were preparing to go to work harvesting corn in a South Bay Growers field about 7.5 miles south of here.

Batista reported he had been informed Batista suddenly slashed out at Gonzalez with his shortened cane knife and cut through Gonzalez' nose and cheek. When Gonzalez whirled around, Batista said Batista cut him again on the thumb. Both of Gonzalez' wounds required a total of 11 stitches to close.

After Gonzalez had been cut the second time, he attacked Batista, according to Batista, cutting him on the elbow and in the arm pit. Batista said many of the corn harvesters have cut off the cane knives until they are about seven inches long, four inches wide and "razor sharp."

Joyner to talk about tropical fruit

BELLE GLADE—To assist Palm Beach County residents in finding out more about the types of tropical fruits that can be grown in our area, Gene Joyner, Urban Horticulturist, Palm Beach County Cooperative Extension Service, will be conducting a series of free, slide-illustrated seminars at the Belle Glade Courthouse, 2979 State Rd. 15, Belle Glade, on Friday, June 3 from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m.

In addition to the over 100 slides being shown, there will be printed information available on the culture of the fruits discussed. Anyone interested in finding out information about tropical fruits and their use in their landscaping is certainly urged to attend.

Property recovered in burglary

PAHOKEE—Several items were stolen Saturday during a burglary that occurred that day, May 28, at Allfresh Co. of Pahokee, Lewis Walker of 390 Juniper Ave. reported the burglary. According to Police Lt. James Peltner, the items stolen included a camera with a flash, two clocks and two am-fm portable radios. A safe containing money was also stolen but recovered behind the building.

Apparently someone had broken a window and pried open the front door, then went through the desk drawers and pried open file cabinets, burglarizing the building. Policemen have no suspects in the burglary.

Karl May, German author who became famous in the 19th-century for his cowboy and Indian stories about the American Wild West, never traveled outside of Germany.

ASCS will register beef producers

"The Palm Beach County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office will register beef producers June 6-17 to vote on the beef research and information order," David A. Spinks, County Executive Director. "Beef producers who fail to register cannot vote in the July referendum."

If over half of registered producers vote in the referendum and two-thirds of those voting approve the order, the Secretary of Agriculture will appoint a beef board, composed of not more than 68 beef producers, from names submitted by producer organizations. The board would collect assessments, on sales of cattle and use the funds for beef research and information programs.

Registration may be in person or by mail. Those who wish to register by mail may request the ASCS county office to mail registration cards.

All persons who produced beef during calendar year 1976 are eligible to register. This included feedlot operators as well as dairymen. Each production entity—such as family, partnership, or corporation—is entitled to one voter. A 4-H or FFA member may register, provided he or she produced beef independent of the family operation.

From June 6 through 17, the ASCS county office will daily post a list of producers registered to vote in conspicuous place. A final list will be posted June 22. Anyone may challenge the eligibility of any producer listed. David A. Spinks, ASCS Palm Beach, County Executive Director, will resolve challenges.

Family is awarded $750,000 for death

PAHOKEE—The death of a 43-year old Abdel Yoda Dawud that occurred as the result of burns he incurred during a fire that enveloped a Pahokee department store was ruled by a six member court jury Friday to be the result of negligence on the part of store owners Charles and George Royal and store proprietor Fakhri Abdel Hadi.

The decision awarded Dawud's family $750,000. Witnesses said the man was found in the back room near a door which had a board across it to secure it shut. Dawud was flown by helicopter to Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami for treatment of burns and died 41 days later.

Defense attorneys argued that Dawud may have been involved in setting the fire himself, since gasoline was allegedly spotted on the floor of the storage area and back room.

Robert Parks, attorney for Dawud's estate, implied that the rear door should have been equipped to allow an emergency exit. Pahokee Building Inspector Felix Slonaker said that the fire code, for the occupancy and size of the particular building, does not require a special fire exit in the back of the building, "it just requires that the building have a back exit," he said.

The Royals plan to appeal the decision.

Fishy business

Catfish still providing livelihood

PAHOKEE—It's not hard to find if you now where to look, but some people probably don't even know it's there: that's Leroy Sullivan's fish house at 3549 Airport Rd., Pahokee.

Mr. Sullivan's fish house is both a retail and a wholesale business where his predominant type of fish is catfish. "I've found that catfish go best locally," Mr. Sullivan said, so he has two large fiberglass ice boxes where he stores small and large catfish that are sold locally and also to Stokes Fish Company of Okeechobee, probably the biggest fish company in the state of Florida, he said. It's headquarters is in Leesburg.

Inside a screened-in room are concrete skinning tables where fisherman clean and skin their fish. The fish are then bought by Mr. Sullivan who in turn sells them to his customers in quantities of two or more pounds for 90 cents per pound, or $1 per pound if they are pan ready.

If the fish must be delivered, there may also be a delivery price attached.

Sullivan said all of his fish come from commercial fishermen but he could buy from pole fishermen if they wanted to sell. "I could buy from anybody really," he said.

In addition to selling his fish to local customers in Canal Point, Pahokee and Belle Glade, Sullivan sometimes sells to people in Stuart, West Palm Beach, Miami and other such cities, especially during the winter "when they have the big tourist season over there."

Sullivan has tags and a tagging permit for scale fish, but he doesn't have the personnel to operate a tagging station. The catfish with which he is supplied, however, don't require tagging to be sold.

Sullivan said. And he stated, "I could sell a lot more small fish than I get." Some of his customers are: Barlow's Restaurant in Okeechobee, who he says has been buying fish from him for years, the Ellis Club and Pahokee Produce, Inc.

He also said that two women school teachers are regular purchasers of the fish. Then Stokes Fish Co. picks up fish twice a week in a large refrigerated truck.

At the fish house, he said, "they (the fishermen) skin the fish, and put them on ice. Then they come and get them off of the ice and I buy the smaller ones."

Sullivan, the father of two daughters and two sons, said he built the house eight years ago and used to handle scalefish, although even then, not too much. His plans must pass a sanitary inspection every month, and sometimes two or three times a month, he said. Sullivan has led a life of fishing and farming, having lived near the lake since 1917 when he lived in Kissimmee. "I've seen it all

THE SMALL CATFISH sell best, says Leroy Sullivan, who owns a fish house in Pahokee. These are some of the fish he had stored on ice. Mr. Sullivan had 165 pounds of pan-ready small catfish in one fiberglass ice box and 556 pounds of fish in the other box.

Some make living by racking lines

PAHOKEE—You won't hear any big fish stories from Ida Dotson because she doesn't fish, but she earns an income from those who do. You'll see Mrs. Dotson sitting outside her store at 3418 Bacon St. Rd. almost every day underneath a roof at Ida's Grocery, Bait and Tackle, "racking lines" for commercial fishermen.

She explained the procedure: "They (the fishermen) make the lines, put them out and run them out across the lake. In the morning they pick them up, bring the lines in in buckets and I take them out."

The lines Mrs. Dotson is referring to are what we laymen might call big nets that the fishermen put out to bring in a large catch of fish. But they don't just go out there and throw a big net in the water.

The lines must be racked first, and that's Mrs. Dotson's job. There are numerous lines which she must arrange in several sections of a wooden box, placing each line with a hook attached, in a tiny slot. When a box has been completely racked with lines, it is ready for another day in the lake.

"I take the old bait off, if there is any, and put new bait on," Mrs. Dotson said, "but they're fishing with mayflowers right now and they pretty well come off themselves."

Mrs. Dotson does a lot of racking but she also has help from Nancy Sherlock. Both women seat themselves at small tables outside the front of the store to rack lines and sometimes to tie knots in the lines.

The amount of racking they complete each day varies, Mrs. Dotson said, depending on how well the fishing goes. And the time required to rack lines also varies, usually depending on the shape the lines are in, whether they are entangled or not. "Sometimes it takes us three hours to do one box when it only takes them a few minutes to put them out. If the lines are in good shape it would take about an hour and a half, but then sometimes we're in bad shape and then it takes longer like we might be nervous one day," Mrs. Dotson said.

For racking lines in an entire box, which is approximately a one cubic foot area, the charge is $2.50. Mrs. Dotson has operated her store for ten years, she said, offering groceries, bait, tackle and drinks. She often has visitors who sit outside the store and talk to her while she works.

Mrs. Dotson does a lot of racking, but she's not one for fishing. "I've never even taken a cane pole to go fishing," she said. She says she has been racking lines for years. And although commercial fishing has been reinstated in Lake Okeechobee, it hasn't really brought her any more business, she said. As far as racking goes, "I slacked off for a while but now it's back to normal," she stated.

Vida Cristiana Latina

ESCRIBE JOSE ANTONIO GARCIA

Hoy vamos a hablar de Babilonia, la ciudad que fue madre de todas las religiones falsas que hay en el mundo, exceptuando la historia bíblica y el cristianismo, y que dicho sea de paso, todas las religiones son iguales piensan lo mismo, y están unidas en ello dado su origen BABILONICO, de ahí que el libro de Apocalipsis describe a Babilonia la Grande (El imperio S Mundial de religión falsa) como una ramera amante de los reyes de la tierra, que ha emborrachado a las naciones con la confusión de sus enseñanzas, y por ello el significado de la palabra "Babel" o Babilonia que significa "Confusión".

Si usted analiza las enseñanzas religiosas del mundo, tacitamente encontrará un mundo de confusiones, queriendo todas dominar sobre las demás y abogar por un espíritu de "ecumenismo" que jamás será una realidad. Si usted registra la historia de los concilios ecumenicos, verá que la división y el descontento son el "Comun Denominador" de los mismos, en que el lego solo juega el papel de observador dado su estado de analfabetismo espiritual...

Pero vayamos a origen e esta ciudad madre de las confusiones espirituales del mundo y veamos como surgió. Su fundador fue Nemrod bisnieto de Noe. (Genesis 10:10) a quien la Biblia llama el primer hombre en oposición a Jehová Dios. Ya partimos en su historia con un comienzo malo; opositor a Dios y siervo del Diabolo. Junto con ella se fundo Nínive la capital del Reino Asirio, que fue por el estilo de Babilonia, pero que desapareció como había profetizado el profeta Nahum.

Fue en Babilonia que se edificó la Torre de Babel. Según la historia babilónica el Gilgame juo un papel importante en ello, y el Gilgame no fue mas que el mismo Nimrod, quien cometi6 incesto casandose con su propia madre, y mas tarde despues de su muerte fue adorado bajo el nombre la la deidad de Marduk en Babilonia, a quien la Biblia en el libro de Daniel llama Merodac.

En la original Torre de Babel, a la gente se les cambio sus lenguas para ue o se entendiesen entre si. PEDRO NO SUS CASAS, que bajo distintos nombres fueron esparcidas sobre la Tierra, como: "La inmortalidad del alma", "El fuego del infierno", "La doctrina de la Trinidad", "La Astrologia", "El Horoscopo", etc. etc., encontrandose dichas creencias lo mismo en el paganismo que en la cristiandad, las cuales se pueden rastrear hasta 20 siglos a.d. Cristo, o sea hasta la primitiva Babilonia de Nimrod. La primera Babilonia desaparecio, pero surgió como Imperio Mundial en dias de Daniel y Esdras, cuando derroto la potencia Asiria, y se constituyó en 3ra. Potencia Mundial relacionada con la historia bíblica. Babilonia fue la responsable de la destrucción de Jerusalem, y del famoso templo de Salomon. Mantuvo cautivo al pueblo judío por siete decadas, pero en cumplimiento de una profecía del profeta Isaias, Oro rey de Persia tomo a Babilonia en una noche en 539 a.m. Criston, decretando la liberación de los judíos y su retorno a Jerusalem. (Esdras 1:1-4)

Babilonia existia en dias del Apostol San Pedro como ciudad y este era el territorio de predicación de San Pedro y el lugar desde el cual escribio sus 2 epistolas y NO ROMA, como han querido hacer ver. (Ira. Pedro 3:12-13)

Babilonia desaparecio no solo como imperio, sino como ciudad bajo la voz implacable de la profecía bíblica de Jeremias y otros profetas, que predijeron que llegaría a ser un monton de ruinas y que jamás sería refrendada. Alejandro Magno lo trato, pero le fue imposible, ya que murio en la misma a los 32 años. Aunque allí estuvieron los Jardines Colgantes que junto con sus muros fueron una de las siete Maravillas del Mundo, hoy no es mas que un monton de ruinas al que pasa, y poco arqueologicamente se ha salvado de ella.

Pero hoy existe como dijimos 1 principio un "Imperio Mundial de la Religión falsa" llamado en el Apocalipsis "Babilonia la Grande" de la que hablaremos en proximos articulos; mientras tanto LEA SU BIBLIA.

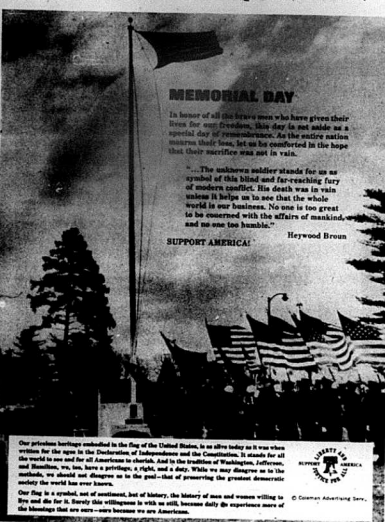

WOMAN'S SOFTBALL has gotten underway again and one of the teams in the Glades league is Glades Sugar House. Taking a break in practice are (first row) Ronda Gamble, Gail Hartwick, Judy Snyder, Rose Goodbread, Kim Barton, Julie Gummere, (second row) Evelyn Galus, Lesly O'Neal, change," he said. He has lived in Pahokee for 26 years and before moving here, he lived in Belle Glade for several years.

"I expect I'm about the oldest fisherman around this neck of the woods anywhere," Sullivan, 70, said. He said he fished commercially for years before the first setting operations began in Lake Okechobee about 30 years ago. He said at that time the three-year test run of commercial fishing only lasted for about seven months.

"The sportsfishermen were against it," he said, "but we fished anywhere we wanted to at that time. But now they (the sportsfishermen) have a better chance because the commercial fishing is limited to a mile from shore," he noted, comparing the present amount of sportsfishing opposition to today's commercial fishing operations.

But it really would do the lake good," Sullivan said. He stated that the shad, gar and larger scalefish eat their own kind. "Some biologists say they won't, but I've seen it and I know what I'm talking about." He said the catfish is different though because with the catfish, after the female lays the eggs, the male takes care of them; otherwise the female would eat the eggs.

Sullivan says the reinstating of commercial fishing on Lake Okechobee hasn't really affected his business and he doesn't make a whole lot of profit from it. It's more or less just something to do, but I make a living at it.

Chamber Chatter: Minimum wage legislation would have great impact

Thurs., June 2, 1977, HERALD-OBSERVER-7B

By Jewel Crane,
Executive Secretary

Rep. Dent's H.R. 8744, supported by the AFL-CIO: This provides for automatically raising the minimum wage in line with the average hourly earning of manufacturing production workers. Thirty days after enactment, the minimum would be increased to 55% of the average manufacturing wage, from the present level of $2.30 an hour to $2.85 an hour. On January 1, 1978, the minimum would be increased to 60% of the average manufacturing wage, or over $3... a whopping increase of 30% over today's minimum. Every January 1, thereafter the minimum would increase automatically to stay at 60% of the average manufacturing wage.

Federal Minimum Wage and its Impact on the State of Florida: An increase in the minimum wage is not like an increase in welfare payments. Wages are paid on the basis of the value of a worker's contribution to a product or service that a consumer is willing to purchase. Consequently, government-directed increases in wages make it impossible for business to hire inexperienced or less skilled workers. As a result, these workers become discouraged and can not find jobs anytime now or in the future. This is a key reason why participation in the labor force and unemployment rates remain unsatisfactory even during good times and why public sector jobs are proposed by the same lawmakers that caused the problem by increasing the minimum wage.

Applying the best study available, if the reaction to this increase is similar to what resulted from minimum wage increases in the past, this proposal could cause the loss of 2 million job opportunities that will not be created as a result of the higher minimum, plus 700,000 layoffs, 4.4% higher labor costs for small businesses which would reduce competition, and 2.9% higher consumer prices for all Americans. The State of Florida could lose about 121,000 jobs; 35,000 jobs for the adult women; 28,000 jobs for blacks and other young male minorities (through age 24); and 6,000 jobs for older workers (65 and over).

Florida would also experience a 4.4% increase in labor costs for all businesses; 5.5% increase for small business; and 3.2% increase in consumer prices. Of those workers still employed and at or near the minimum wage, only about one-half would be from households receiving low incomes. Increases in the minimum wage is an undesirable and cruel way to help a few households increase low incomes.

Florida would be better off without an increase in the minimum wage. If an increase is enacted it should be modest, not tied to automatic adjustments and recognize the importance of retaining a full tip credit and provide a 25% youth differential. Action Suggested: After you have read this article...the National and your local Chamber of Commerce recommends that you write your Senators and let them know what you think about this legislation. Write a letter to President Carter also, so he will have the benefit of your views about the economic effects of this legislation.

At a time when the nation is already plagued with unemployment and the growing threat of another round of severe inflation, it's clear that Congress should not be considering minimum wage legislation that will only make bad matters worse.
